Men in Dance Festival

Date: Friday, October 12, 2012 - Sunday, October 21, 2012

Venue: Broadway Performance Hall

One of Seattle's oldest dance festivals is back for its ninth biennial on Capitol Hill. The Men in Dance Festival features a broad cross-section of many genres of Seattle dance in which men excel, including ballet, modern dance and tap. Featuring local artists like Olivier Wevers and Wade Madsen, the festival is expanding beyond Washington State to include three out-of-state choreographers. Kaleidoscope Dance Company brings young male dancers (ages 8–15) to the stage, and dance faculty from Cornish and the University of Washington will present work. And they say ballet isn't a sport...
